HOUSE RULES

ADOPTED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

BOSTON ART CLUB, SEPTEMBER 1, 1916.

1. The Club-house shall be opened at 7 o'clock a.m., and shall be closed on week-days at midnight and on Sundays at 11 o'clock p. m. Members shall not be admitted to the Club-house after midnight, except for the purpose of reaching their rooms. The dining-rooms shall be open from 7.30 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m., daily.

2. The tariff and regulations for the use of bed-rooms, the billiard-rooms, and card-rooms, shall be, by force of Section 1 of Article VIII of the By-laws, under the control of the House-Committee. No game shall be played in the Club-house on Sundays.

3. Newspapers, magazines, or other articles the property of the Club shall not be taken from the Club-house or marked, cut, or otherwise injured.

Newspapers and magazines shall not be taken from the social floor of the Club-house.

By signing a card at the office a member occupying a room in the Club-house may take a book of fiction to his room, but no book so taken shall be retained for a longer period than twenty-four hours, and upon its return to the office the card shall be cancelled.

By signing a card at the office a member may take a book from the Art Library for a period not exceeding two weeks, and upon its return to the office the card shall be cancelled.

4. Petitions, notices, subscription papers, or advertisements, shall not be placed or circulated in the Club-house except by permission of the House Committee.

No person shall date or address from the Club any circular or communication intended to appear in any pamphlet, newspaper, periodical, or other publication.

5. Any damage to the property of the Club shall be paid for by the member who may have caused the same, the amount to be so paid to be certified as directed by Section 2 of Article XXIII of the By-laws.

6. Pipe-smoking is prohibited in the library, the dining rooms and strangers room. No person shall smoke a pipe while in actual play at a billiard or pool table, nor shall a lighted cigar, cigarette, or pipe, be placed thereon.

7. Dogs shall not be allowed in the Club-house.

8. For the convenience of members a coat-room is furnished, in charge of an attendant, for hats, overcoats, bags, umbrellas, canes, and packages, and these articles must not be deposited elsewhere in the Club-house.

9. The Club will not be responsible for articles left in bedrooms or elsewhere in or about the Club-house. Bags and packages to remain for any length of time will have additional protection if member will request locker check.

10. No member or visitor shall, under any pretence whatever, give any money or gratuity to any person employed in the Club, and such person shall not be employed by any member on any business of his own out of the Club-house. Upon application at the office, messengers will be furnished, for which a proper charge will be made.

11. All complaints and suggestions must be made in writing addressed to the House Committee and signed by the member.

12. Nothing shall be served from the restaurant outside of the dining-rooms, excepting tea, coffee, sandwiches, and such articles of food and drink as the House Committee may from time to time permit. Breakfasts, however, may be served in bedrooms at an extra charge for service. Private dinners may be served in the Club-house to members and their guests under the control and at the discretion of the House Committee.

Orders for articles served from the kitchen, buffet, or any other place, must be signed by the member, so ordering or with the name of the person so ordering, and that of the member responsible for such person. A member desiring to pay cash may do so by writing "Cash" on his order check and paying the same at the office on the day of its date. "Cash" checks not so paid will be charged to the member's account.

13. Private dining-rooms shall not be assigned to parties numbering less than three persons, and the House Committee may, at its discretion, refuse applications for private dining-rooms.

14. Without permission from the House Committee a member may not engage a room for more than two weeks, or re-engage a room or engage any other room until his term of occupancy shall have expired. Applications for rooms shall be made at the office and considered in order as received. A member's right to a room is not transferable. Strangers entitled to the privileges of the Club may occupy bedrooms, but no member shall be privileged to extend the use of a bedroom to more than one stranger at a time, except by special permission of the House Committee. Notice of intention to vacate a room must be given at the office before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, or the room will be charged to the occupant for that day. Bedrooms and bath-rooms, either together or separately may be let by the hour for toilet purposes at rates to be fixed by the House Committee.

15. Minors accompanying persons who have the right of admission may be admitted to the privileges of the dining-rooms of the Club only.

16. Members unaccompanied by ladies shall enter and leave the Club-house by the Newbury Street entrance.

17. Upon the written application of a member the House Committee will issue a card admitting ladies of the immediate family of such member to the use and privileges of the Ladies' Department. For the purpose aforesaid a special blank, to be obtained at the office shall be used. The House Committee, within its discretion, will issue like cards of admission to ladies who may not be of a member's immediate family. Any card issued under this rule may at any time be recalled and cancelled by said Committee.

A member shall be responsible for any and all indebtedness contracted by the holder of a card of admission issued upon his application, the same to be charged to his account.

18. The Ladies' Department shall be open when and as the House Committee may from time to time direct, and ladies accompanied by a member shall be admitted thithereto. A lady holding a card of admission shall be entitled to the use and privileges of said department. She may be accompanied by a lady or ladies not holding such cards. She shall, when not accompanied by a member, enter in a book kept for such purpose her own name, the name of the member appearing on her card, and the name or names of any guest or guests accompanying her. All order checks shall be signed by the holder of such card with her own name and that of the member who applied for the same. No gentleman guest under this rule shall be introduced oftener than once in thirty days, and the holder of a card of admission shall ascertain whether such intended guest has been introduced during the previous thirty days.

19. No refreshments of any kind shall be served in the Ladies' Reception Room, or to a member in any part of the Ladies' Department unless accompanied by a lady.

20. Ladies shall be admitted to the Club-house by the Dartmouth Street entrance, and they shall not be admitted to any part of the Club-house other than the Ladies' Department, except as permitted by the House Committee.

21. Upon receipt of news of the death of a member of the Club, the Club flag shall be placed at half staff until after the funeral. In case the news of the death is not received until after the funeral, the flag shall be so displayed for one day.

22. These Rules can be amended only by a vote of the Executive Committee.

Amendments to Rules posted on the Bulletin Board of the Club will become operative when posted.
